1. If you've already heard of intersex, please don't assume things about intersex people. It's okay to ask appropriate questions!
2. Please respect that being intersex means our experience may be different, or we may or may not identify as either a girl or a guy.
3. Being intersex means having a right to decide what to share with others when we want to.
4. Don't assume things about peoples bodies.
5. Please treat me with dignity and respect.*
6. Don't assume things about peoples gender and sexuality diverse identities.
